GOSSIP OF THE RUNNERS.

SO-MORROW'S PROGRAMME WINDS UP THE SPORT IN NEW YORK.

The White Finine and Morris Park Handi-caps Down for Decicion-Chances of the Various Horses-Crescent City Jeckey Cinb Stakes Will Close on Nov. 14. The racing season of 1896, se far as the metropolis is concerned, will come to a close at Morris Park to-morrow, when a decidedly interesting programme of seven races will be run Then Pimilco and Bennings in the far East, New Orleans in the extreme South, and San Francisco in the remote West will engage the racing public until the spring of 1897.

The programme for Morris Park to-morrow consists of six races on the flat and a steeplechase over the three-mile course. The stake features are the Auction, for three-year-olds and upward, over the last seven furiongs of the Wither s mile; the White Plains, for two-yearold colts, filles, or goldings, over the Eolipse course; and the Morris Park, for three-yearolds, at one mile and a half. The Auetion has, among other nominations, such good material as Brandywine, Merry Prince, Roundsman, Harry Reed, Rubicon, Glanmoyne, Deerslayer, Argentins, and Commissioner. It is safe to say, however, that there will be many absentees now that owners are striving to live up to the true meaning of the selling clause. As for the White Plains and Morris Park, they are both handicaps. All of the smart two-year-olds, with very few exceptions, are named for the former, Ty-phoon II., The Friar, Challenger, Bannock, Voter, Royal Rose, Winged Foot, Casseopia, George Rose, and Xmas being some of the best on the list. The Friar is the topweight at 124 pounds, with 120 on Typhoon IL and 118 on Challenger. There is a question whether Typhoon II. will get away well, as he has bumped his head repeatedly against the barrier of the starting machine and he will not break well. Clayton handled Challenger well on Saturday, figuring to be in motion when the gate went up, and while he got none the best of the send-off, he was moving, and soon worked his way through the ruck. THE SUN has always fancied Challenger over a distance of ground, and were the White Plains at seven furlongs he would take a heap of beating for the prize. The Friar, all things considered, will be the dangerous entry. This colt is well behaved at the post, is a quick beginner from a stand-still start, and placed anywhere during a race. Typhoon II, if he gets away well is still handicapped by a very sore mouth, and Taral, who has ridden the celt, says it is useless to try to place him during a race. Single-handed and starting without a barrier, Typhoon II. would be the selection of a majority of the talent tomorrow. George Rese is handicapped at 111 pounds, but this handsome two-year-old is only a wreck of the royal youngster that won the Partridge Stakes at Sheepshead Bay. He ran with one of his hind legs in a bandage on Saturday, and looks as though the long campaign had told on him. He will go to Memphia in had told on him. He will go to Memphis in company with Buck Massic and Souffile, and be wintered at that point, it being Mr. Murphy's intention at present not to start any of his trio of bread winners at New Orleans this winter. Hoyal Rose, the splendid big daughter of Royal Hampton in the Keene Stables, is handicapped for the White Pisins at 108 pounds. This will enable Sims to ride without carrying everweight, and the slashing filly should beat mere than will beat her under such conditions.

The nominations for the Morris Park Handicap are exceedingly light, Requisel. Reundsman, and One I Love all having been retired, and leaving only The Winner, Souffie, Goldorest, and Ramire to contend for the $2,000 purse. Ramire bled in the Turf and Field Club Handicap on Saturday, and Souffie will not be short, having taken part in the same race. The winner is serswed up to concert pitch, and since his dead heat and successful run-off with Ramire has been a mile and a half in 2:37. With the track good and dry the winner should be hard to beat, but if the course is bad Souffie, a veritable mudlark, would probably win handily.

The astonishing prices realized by Enoch pe hard to beak but it the course is one country a veritable mudiark, would probably win handily.

The astonishing prices realized by Enoch Wishard for Mack Briggs, Wishard, and the balance of his string of American race horses sold at auction in England last week has caused the opinion to be surcessed that horses are very much more valuable abroad than hers. Wishard or Mack Briggs would not command more than half the figure they brought abroad were they offered in this country. When Omnium II., the noted French thoroughbred owned by M. de St. Alary, was shipped to England to take part in the Cambridgeshire, in which he was not placed, he was insured for $60,000, and the Fried in commenting upon this says "the horse is worth every shilling of the monsy."

The Pinnlice meeting begins on Thursday, two days after the close of the season in this State, and if reports are correct there is a promise of good sport ahead for levers of racing. The Pinnlice programme has many special features, not the least of which are the races cross country for hunters owned by members of the Elk Ridge, Green Spring Valley, Chevy Chase, Radmor, or any other recognized hust club. The "pink coat" race, which means that the gentlemen riders shall wear hunting costumes, is a novelly that should furnish an interesting spectacle.

Many owners of small stables who had no engagement at Westchester to-morrow left for Pimilco last night. Special trains will be waiting at Morris Fark on Wednesday for others who intend to participate. Judging from the applications for stable room at the track the meeting will not suffer from lack of material.

The stewards of the meeting are Clarence McDewell, William Manley, and Jesse Brown. The gentlemen who will represent the National Hunt Association in overseeing the steeplechase races are F. H. M. Brickhead, William Manley, and P. S. P. Randolph. Mr. Pettingill will start the horses, using the Clark machine, and Cel. Simmons will place them. There is nothing lacking in the matter of officials. Should the bresent meeting be encouraging to its promoters, the next meeting will be arranged on a larger scale, with valuable stakes and special features. British horsemen as well as the enterprising Americans who tackle them on their own ground, have fresh cause to congratulate themselves on the racing outlook in "merrie England." London Sporting Life of Oct 24 says: "The last year of the expiring cantury will be motable for the inausuration of such present time, to run, not as in the ease of the Eslipse Stakes as three and four year olds, but as four and five year elds. The initial scaley is only 5 sovereigns, and doubtless a very large entry will be secured. Unless 300 are nominated the executive reserve to themselves the right to deciare the race void."

executive reserve to themselves the right to de-ciare the race void."

In addition to this, the Racing Calendar comes out with the following cheerful announcement for patrons of "Royal Ascot":

"The Master of Her Majesty's Buckhounds has intimated to the Stewards of Ascot the in-tention of the trustees of the grand stand to in-crease the added money by a further sum of 3.000 sovereigns, and the following application of it has been appreved: One thousand sover-signs more to the Ascot Cup. 1,000 soversigns to the Ascot Stakes, 500 soversigns to the Alex-andra Plate, and 500 soversigns to the Queen's Stand Plate."

to the Asoot Stakes, 500 soversigns to the Alexandra Plate, and 500 soversigns to the Queen's Stand Plate."

Hersemen should not forget that the stakes to be run during the coming meeting of the Orescent City Jockey Club will close on Saturday, Nov. 14, with Secretary Sheridan Clark, 735 Grawier street, New Orleans. The stakes, and the dates on which they will be run, are as follows: Nov. 24, Ponce de Leon Handicap, for two-year-olds $1,000, three-quarters of a mile; Nov. 26, Thanksgiving Handicap, for three-year-olds and unward, $1,000, three-quarters of a mile; Dec. 2, Magnolia Stakes, selling, for three-year-olds and unward, $1,000, three-quarters of a mile; Dec. 9, Palmetto Hurdle Handicap, $1,000, one mile and a quarter; Dec. 16. Mississippi Handicap, for three-year-olds, $1,000, three-quarters of a mile; Dec. 25, Christmas Handicap, for three-year-olds and upward, $1,000, one mile and a sixteenth; Jan. 6, Live Oak Handicap, for three-year-olds and upward, $1,000, one mile and a sixteenth; Jan. 6, Live Oak Handicap, for three-year-olds and upward, $1,000, one mile and a neighth; Jan. 8, Jackson Haspicap, for three-year-olds and upward, $1,000, one mile and an eighth; Jan. 8, Jackson Haspicap, for three-year-olds and upward, $1,000, one mile and a furlong.

Robert Bradiey's, John E. Madden's, and Harch — Crescent City Derby, for three-year-olds and upward, $1,000, one mile and a furlong.

Robert Bradiey's, John E. Madden's, and Frank Resgan's horses from the vicinity of this city are aircady on the grounds, and others will fellow after the close at Bennings. The Western contingent keep pouring into the fair grounds, and at the Morris Park track.

The many friends of Trainer James H. McCormick, who has had charge of Eurae & Waternouse's horses for over a year, will regret to hear that he is still very ill in Brookiya. His friends are unable to see him, but the doctors hope to save his life. Mr. McCormick is one of the most popular men in the racing business. and has friends from New Yerk to California who wo with the spectators, and both punched each other right and left, at the winding up of which several of their friends participated. This resulted in a general fight. Not until Policeman Graham, who was a spectator, hustled the disturbers out of the building was order restored.

The principal bout of the night was a six-round "go" between George Clare of Long Island City and Con O'Brien of this city at 15s pounds. Clare seemed to have the better of the argument, but the referse, Paton Roble, declared it to be a draw.

SRELEVYHLE. Ind., Nov. 1.—A brutal prize fight was pulled off carly yesterday morning on the fair grounds here. Ed Dinsmore of this city and Charles Smith of Marion, O., were the principals. Smith was kuccked senseless in the sixth round and was carried from the ring bleeding from the cars, nose, and mouth. His condition is serious.

Tenowro, Nov. 1.—The boxing contest, limited to twenty rounds, for a purse of $300, between Jock Hanisy of Philadelphia and Jim Baskerville of Suffale last night, took place at the Toronto A. C. light weight. "Yank" bullivan of Byracuse was referes. The first two rounds were a succession of clinches. Baskerville drew first blood in the third round. In the fourth, fifth, and sixth rounds hard fighting was done, with honors almost even. Baskerville got in a number of siff blows, but they did not have much effect, while Hanisy's repeated typs on the eye sectined to bother Baskerville syntematics. Both came up strong for the nin-h round. Hanisy landed three vicious jabs en the eye and a stiff punch over the heart. Which sent Baskerville to the floor, where he lay until counted out. Among those present was Jim Corbett.

The following report has been issued: It should be plainly understood that it is not nec-essary for associations which are members of the league to secure the sanction of the A. A. On the other hand, the by-laws of the league require that all games other than those confined to the members of one local association or branch shall receive the sanction of the committee which has jurisdiction in its section.

Hugh J. Alcorane of the Century Wheelmen also made an attempt on the record over the same course, but he was compelled to retire from the race on the return trip, owing to a broken knee cap, the result of a fall. It is said, however, that he reduced the record to Philadelphia held by his clubmate, A. E. Edwards.

Philadelphia held by his clubmate, A. E. Edwards.

Parchogue, Nov. 1.—Members of the Patchogue Wheelmen tried for two new records resterday on their track. The ten-mile State record was lowered from 24:00 to 22:5314. Henry K. Roe, senior member of the Patchogue racing team, made the new record, paced by two tandems and a triplet. Roe rode five miles two weeks ago in 11:19. Yesterday he lowered this to 11:11. The timers and scorers will file affidavits to-morrow as to the accuracy of the time. The track was three laps to the mile. Roe will go for the State twenty-mile record on the first favorable day.

Brantword, Ont.. Nov. 1.—One world's and two Canadian records were toppled over at the Parkidale Briving Park yesterday. Tucker and Boake, on a tandem, rode a quarter of a mile, flying start, in 24-45 seconds, a world's record. Angus McLeod, paced by two tandems, cut the Canadian quarter of a mile, flying start, record, one-fifth of a second, making it 24-5 seconds. Fred Westbrook lowered the Canadian quarter of a mile, standing start, record, three-fifths of a second, going the distance in 28-4-5 seconds. The riders were assisted by a high wind.

LONDON, Nov. 1.—At the Crystal Palace yesterday McGregor and Nelson, on a tandem, broke the records from thirty-two to fifty miles. They covered the latter distance in 1 hour 47 minutes 8 2-5 seconds. At Catford Colliver and Chin established a new tandem record for a quarter of a mile, flying start. Their time was 24 3-5 seconds.

New York Yacht Club's Special Meeting. The New York Yacht Club will hold a special meeting at the club house on next Thursday evening, when the amendments passed at the fifth general meeting of the club, on Oct. 22, tion to the changes in the racing rules the amendments recently passed by the Larchmont Yacht Club will also be presented. There mont Yacht Club will also be presented. There will also be a new section 15 to rule 18, relative to manœuvring for the start, acted upon. It reads as follows:

When two yachts in manœuvring for the start, both on the same tack, one to the windward and one to the leeward, and the weather yacht, being freer than the leeward yacht, should the leeward yacht should the leeward yacht be close-hauled on the wind, and before an overlap has been established, the leeward yacht shall have the right to hold and maintain her course, even if thereby the windward yacht should be forced on the wrong side of the starting mark.

Star Pacers May Race at Fleetwood.

Star Pointer, 2:0816, and Joe Patchen, 2:08, will probably come together in a special exhi-bition race at Fleetwood Park on Wednesday, Nov. 11, and arrangements were about com-pleted yesterday for the appearance of Royal Victor, 2:08%, and Guinette, 2:08, in a similar exhibition on the same day, Should these two races take place. Robert J. and John R. Gentry will be exhibited on the track, and the trotters belonging to the estate of the late Major Samuel T. Dickinson will probably be sold on the same day.

ADMIRERS OF THE TIGERS PREDICT DEFEAT FOR HARVARD.

Eleven Is the Superior of the Crimson Tenm-Players Who Will Probably Take Part in Saturday's Came Stred Up, Harvard and Princeton will meet on the footsall field at Cambridge next Saturday, and it is expected that 20,000 persons will see the bat-tle. Last year Harvard was beaten at Princeton by a score of 12 to 4, which was somewhat in the nature of a surprise. The Crimson eleven was probably stronger then than it is at present, and the Tigers were about as formidable as they will be when they tackle the Cambridge men again. On form it seems as if the Princeton team is superior to the Harvard eleven, and the football sharps are freely predicting a victory for the New Jersey 'varsity. But one point should not be forgotten. The game will be played on Harvard soil, with an immense crowd to encourage the Crimson players. Luck may out considerable of a figure, toe, and Harvard is about due for a smile from Dame Fortune.

The last time Princeton played football in Cambridge was on Saturday, Nov. 16, 1889, when Harvard was beaten by a score of 41 to The winning eleven was made up of Don-elly, Cowan, Janeway, George, Riggs, Cash, warren, Poe, Black, Channing, and Ames, while the Harvard players were Cumnock, Upton, Cranston, Tilton, P. Trafford, Stickney, Crosby, Dean, Lee, Saxe, and B. Trafford. This game was the direct cause of the breach between the solleges, which was not healed until a year ago. narvard made charges of professionalism against several members of the Princeton team, notably Donnelly and Ames, but they were never proved. The game was notable for rough play, and Donnelly and Riggs were ordered off the field. There is the best of feeling between wins will receive the congratulations of the when the teams line up next Saturday it will be noticed at once that the Harvard rush line contains more beef than that of Princeton, but the Tigers figure that their line will probably play left end for the Crimson, will face Capt. Garreit Occhran. The latter is considered the best right end in the colleges, but he will undoubtedly have his hands full if Cabot is in proper condition to play. With Cabot indisposed, however, Lewis, who is his understudy, would prove easy for the Princeton Captain. Cochran's strength as an end lies in his ability to get down the field quickly on punts and prevent a return kick. He is a fierce tackler and is practicular interest just now. According to the conditions, a directing cancil, which is to have directing cancil, which is to have utrisdiction over all matches played, has been appointed. for by Moulton. The latter is pronounced by the critics to be a coming player, and he has shown himself one in all the recent games. Thompson, Princeton's left end, is, like Coch-ran, swift of foot in getting under punts and is a beautiful tackler, but he will have a hard tack here blue, and the prince of th a beautiful tackler, but he will have a hard task before him to outplay either Brewer or ran, switt of foot in getting under putts and is a beautiful tackler, but he will have a hard task before him to outplay either Brower or Moulton.

Taken altogether, it can be said that Princeton's line is stronger at both tackles and centre, while Harvard excels at right guard, and can make about an even break with her left guard and both ends. Back of the line both elevens can lay claim to strength, but Princeton will have an advantage that will be nærd to offset. In Baird, Princeton has the best kicking full back in the country. As a punter he is easily the superior of Brown of Harvard, although the latter is very clever at this game. But Baird's strong point is drop kicking. In five attempts this year he has succeeded in kicking four goals from the field, one of them against West Point from the 40-yard line, two against the University of Virginia, and one against the Pennsylvania State College team. He is also a splendid ground gainer and a sure tackler. Brown, the Harvard full back, is the best punter at Cambridge and is also skilful at kicking goals from the field. He made both of Harvard's touchdowns against Corneil and also kicked a fine goal from the 30-yard line.

Princeton has four men who can play half back, and three of them are veterans. Bannard is the best of the lot, and can hit the line like a battering ram. Relly comes next in point of attength as a line breaker, while Relter and Rosengarten are not far behind. The lujury to Capt. Wrightington may prove to be the key to Harvard's situation back of the line. At preent he is on crutches, and even if he can begin the game his strong rushing tactics cannot be expected to come up to the mark. Should the Harvard captain fail to take the field his place will be filled by Sullivan, a new player, who is strong in line sucking and also in getting around the eads. Dunlop, who will probably play right half back, is a veteran. He is not only a first-class ground galner but he can kick well.

In point of quickness in handling the bait the rival quarter back well.

In point of quickness in handling the ball the rival quarter backs are about equal. Smith of Princeton is tailer and heavier than Beals of Harvard. He is also one of the best tacklers on his team, and breaks through the line in better shape than does Beals. The latter is a good tackler, but does very little ground gaining.

WEST POINTERS ON THE GRIDIRON. Officers and Cadets Take a Lively Interest in the Game.

WEST POINT, Nov. 1 .- Football is the allbeorbing topic at the United States Military Academy, and every one on the post from the superintendent down takes a lively interest in it. In fact Harmon S Graves, the old Yale half back, who has coached the team here for several years, says there is no college in the country where such universal interest is taken in the game. West Point has only 300 young men from which to pick her tesm, while Harvard, Princeton, and Yale each have several thousand students to select from. Furthermore, West Point has only an hour a day in which to practise, except on Wednesdays and Saturdays, while at the civil colleges almost every after-while at the civil colleges almost every afternoon is spant in practising.

One of the first questions asked of a "plebe" when he reports for duty is, "Have you ever played football?" If he answers in the affirmative he receives every opportunity to show his ability. As a result there are always some members of the fourth class on the Academy team. This year Hall at centre, Baender at left end, and Gillmore, the first substitute for half back, are all fourth class men, or freshmen, as they would be termed in a civil college. The academy here being a Government institution, no admission is charred to the games, and the expenses of the team, which are necessarily large, are paid entirely by voluntary contributions, meetly from the Army Officers' Athletic Association. Among the officers at the Point there is no one, perhaps, more interested in football than Lieut-Col, Mills, the commandant of cadets. His son Faul plays half back on the Yale team, and his son Samuel, Jr., plays tack is on the Harvard team.

The team this year has been ably coached by Dyer, the captain and full back of the Cornell 1803 team. He has been assisted from time to time by Graves and Corbin, formerly of Yale; Beacham of Cornell, and King, Nolan, Stary, Lott, and Hinckley. West Point graduates. "Daddy "Hall is playing a strong same at centre, and it is seldom that a gain is made through him. This is the first year he has played football, but he has aiready mastered the fine points of the game, and in the contest with Princeton proved to be a veritable stone wail. Jerry Humphrey, at left guard, is also doing good work. He blocks well in the line, and is quick to break through his opponent. Hight guard has been a weak spot in the team this season. Several men have been tried in the place, but without success. Scott played the position last week and did well in practice. The work of Scales and Williams as tackles is all that can be desired. Indeed, it is doubtful if there is a better tackler than Scales in the country. Both Scales and Williams are good ground gainers and strong in defensive play.

"Pop" Savage, at right end, has been doing excellent work. His atrong points are in breaking up interference and gaiting down the field on a punt. Both he and Baender, the left end, are good ground gainers, quick to get into the interference, and sure tacklers. Mailn Craig is playing a fine game at quarter back. He passes the ball accurately, is quick to get into the interference, tackles well, and, above all, plays a "heady" game. Craig is regarded as one of the most promising candidates for captain of next year's team. At half back, "Katy" Connor and Neebitt make a strong pair. Both are swift runners and good ground gainers, Charley Romeyn, at full back, is a clever punter. He has outpunted every full back who has played at West Point has a number of good substitutes to draw from. Hobert S. Abernethy, 97, is the

at West Point this year, not excepting Baird of Princeton.

West Point has a number of good substitutes to draw from. Robert S. Abernethy, 97, is the centre and plays a good game. For guards, Henry S. Morgan, 97 and Jay P. Hopkins, '00, are considered to be the best. For tackies, the first substitutes are Henry S. Smither, '97, and Henry N. Way, '99, and for ends Wilson B. Burtt, '99, and Thomas M. Hunter, 1900, Behind the line Evan H. Humphrey is an excellent quarter back, while William E. Gillmore, 1900, and Charles H. Munton, '98, are considered to be the best halves. Craig is the substitute full back.

GOLF ON ELECTION DAY.

MANY COMPETITIONS SET DOWN FOR DECISION. The Navarro Property Purchased by the Scabright Golf Club - Results for the Smith Cup at the Richmond County Club - Mixed Foursome at Westbrook To-day,

Two new golf courses are to be opened on election day, one at the Marine and Field Club, Bath Beach, and the other at the Staten Island Cricket and Baseball Club. At the Marine and Field Club there will be only informal play, but luncheon will be served after the inspection of the links. At the Staten Island course at Living. ston the event is the first semi-annual handleap for the valuable silver challenge cup, which must be won three times to become the property of the winner. There will also be medals for the first, second, and third men. The club expects a large entry. Among those already entered are L. B. Stoddart, G. E. Armstrong, James Park, W. W. Lowery, J. R. Chadwick, W. K. Jewett, Charles T. Slant, A. E. Paterson, W. S. Callender, F. Roberts, C. A. Fry. Malcolin Graham, F. T. Short, R. E. Robinson, O. Hocks meyer, V. Hockmeyer, R. St. C. Walker, A. W. Morriss, Austin P. Kelley, C. Barton, Douglas Bonner, and Edward Becket.

Other election day golfing events include a bogie competition at the New Brunswick Golf Club, with the players divided into five classes; a mixed foursome at the Morris County Golf Club, in which no male can start who has falled to vete, and a members' handicap, at thirty-sig holes, medal play, will be held at the layer Meadow Golf Club, for a silver cup presented by Timothy L. Woodruff. There will also be a competition, with silver cups as the prizes at the Englewood Goif Club, and in the merning Van Antwerp, A. T. Enos, and Lydecker will play off their tie in the MacKay Cup series, There will also be competitions at Ardsley Casino, Tuxedo Park, Essex County Country Club, Richmond Hill Golf Club, Paterson Golf Club and elsewhere. The most important contest, however, will be for the John Reid gold medal, representing the club championship, at the St. Andrew's Golf Club. This trophy dates back to days when the only goifers in this country were the "Apple Tree Gang" at the first St. Andrew's course, in the mendows below Harry Talmadge's house at Yonkers. In 1889 it was won by P. C. Myers; 1890, J. B. Upham; 1891, Dr. Henry Moffat; 1892, J. B. Upham; 1893, George Hunter; 1894, D. G. Henderson; 1895,

W. H. Sands.

There will be a mixed foursome to-day at the Westbrook Golf Club. The women expected to play include Mrs. W. Butler Duncan, Jr., Missanna Sands. Mrs. C. F. Havemeyer, Mrs. Tappin, Mrs. Hollins, and Miss Alice Strong. The teurnament last week was managed in excellent style. The good form of the home players was the feature of the golf. Aside from young Hollins, L. Tappin, and Knapp, who were all on their native heath, the best game was put up by G. E. Armstrong of Richmond County and St. Andrew's. H. R. Townsend, who won the handicap, also played up to the top of his game. The play in the handicap was not very brilliant, for the lowest scratch score was 101.

The final rounds for the silver loving cup presented by Arthur Smith were played at the Richmond County Country Club on Saurday. The competition began on Oct. 17. The conditions were three rounds of eighteen holes, medal play, the two contestants returning the lowest net scores to be declared the winner. Twenty-one turned the requisite number of cards, although nearly sixty started in the match. John R. Chadwick, who, with Paterson, Park, and Armstrong, make up the "Big Four" of the club, was the winner. The six best cards and the summary of the other scores follow:

Club and Malcolm Graham, Jr., Ardsley Casino, who tied for the silver cups with 1.5 her in the thirty-six hole, open handicap, at the Country Club of Westchester on Oct. 24, played, off last week. Edwards won easily. He said that the two cards were so poor they were destroyed. Tool has come to Seabright to stay for "good and a." for a number of the trustees and members of the Seabright Golf Club have purchased the Navarro property, running from the Rumsen road to the Shrewsbury River, about 104 acres of gently undulating land, well supplied with natural hazards, and, as it has been kept in pasture for a number of years, it is well adapted for golf. It is proposed to build a new club house and lay out an eighteen-hole course. Following the example of the Morristown and other clubs, the matter of raising the hecessary funds has been wisely put in the hands of a committee of women, consisting of Mrs. W. E. Strong, Chairman; Mrs. E. D. Adams, Mrs. Raymoud Hoagland, Mrs. J. F. Kernochan, Mrs. William Barclay Parsons, Mrs. H. L.Terrell, and Mrs. H. L. Thornell, all of whom have piedged theme, selves to give $100 each. It is proposed to have the house and course ready early next spring.
